FOREWORD

With the turning of each page of the AKLAN, forgotten memories of activities and events of the school year are recalled. Fall brought the opening of the school year, football, and rallies. Winter followed, and evening activities were moved indoors as we enjoyed basketball in the new gym and hootenannies with professional entertainment. Spring, crowded with "Annie Get Your Gun," the Musical, and senior activities, brought us to graduation sooner than anyone had expected.

Dedication...

Mr. Thom instructs a wood shop student in the use of a coping saw.

Each of the hundreds of garments made in clothing courses is carefully inspected by Mrs. Frazier for workmanship and fit.

The 1964 Aklan is dedicated to four members of the Acalanes faculty who, as effective and efficient teachers, have brought honor to our school and our community.

The garments fashioned by Mrs. Shirley Frazier's clothing students have long been admired for their taste and workmanship. Besides impressing spectators at the Mother-Daughter Tea, Mrs. Frazier's students have each year won top honors in the Wool Growers' Contest.

Mr. Robert Thom has geared the work of his industrial arts classes to the interest of the students. This factor, more than any other, enabled Mr. Thom's students to amaze the community with the skilled craftsmanship of their work.

Auto shop students are always able to turn to Mr. Hollister Kaufman for assistance. Students in auto shop classes have consistently placed in the difficult Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest.

Mr. Stanley Black's home design classes are unique in that, in addition to drawings, students build scale models of their projects. Not only has their work won awards from the Women's Architectural League and the Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, East Bay, but the blueprints have also been the basis for actual buildings.

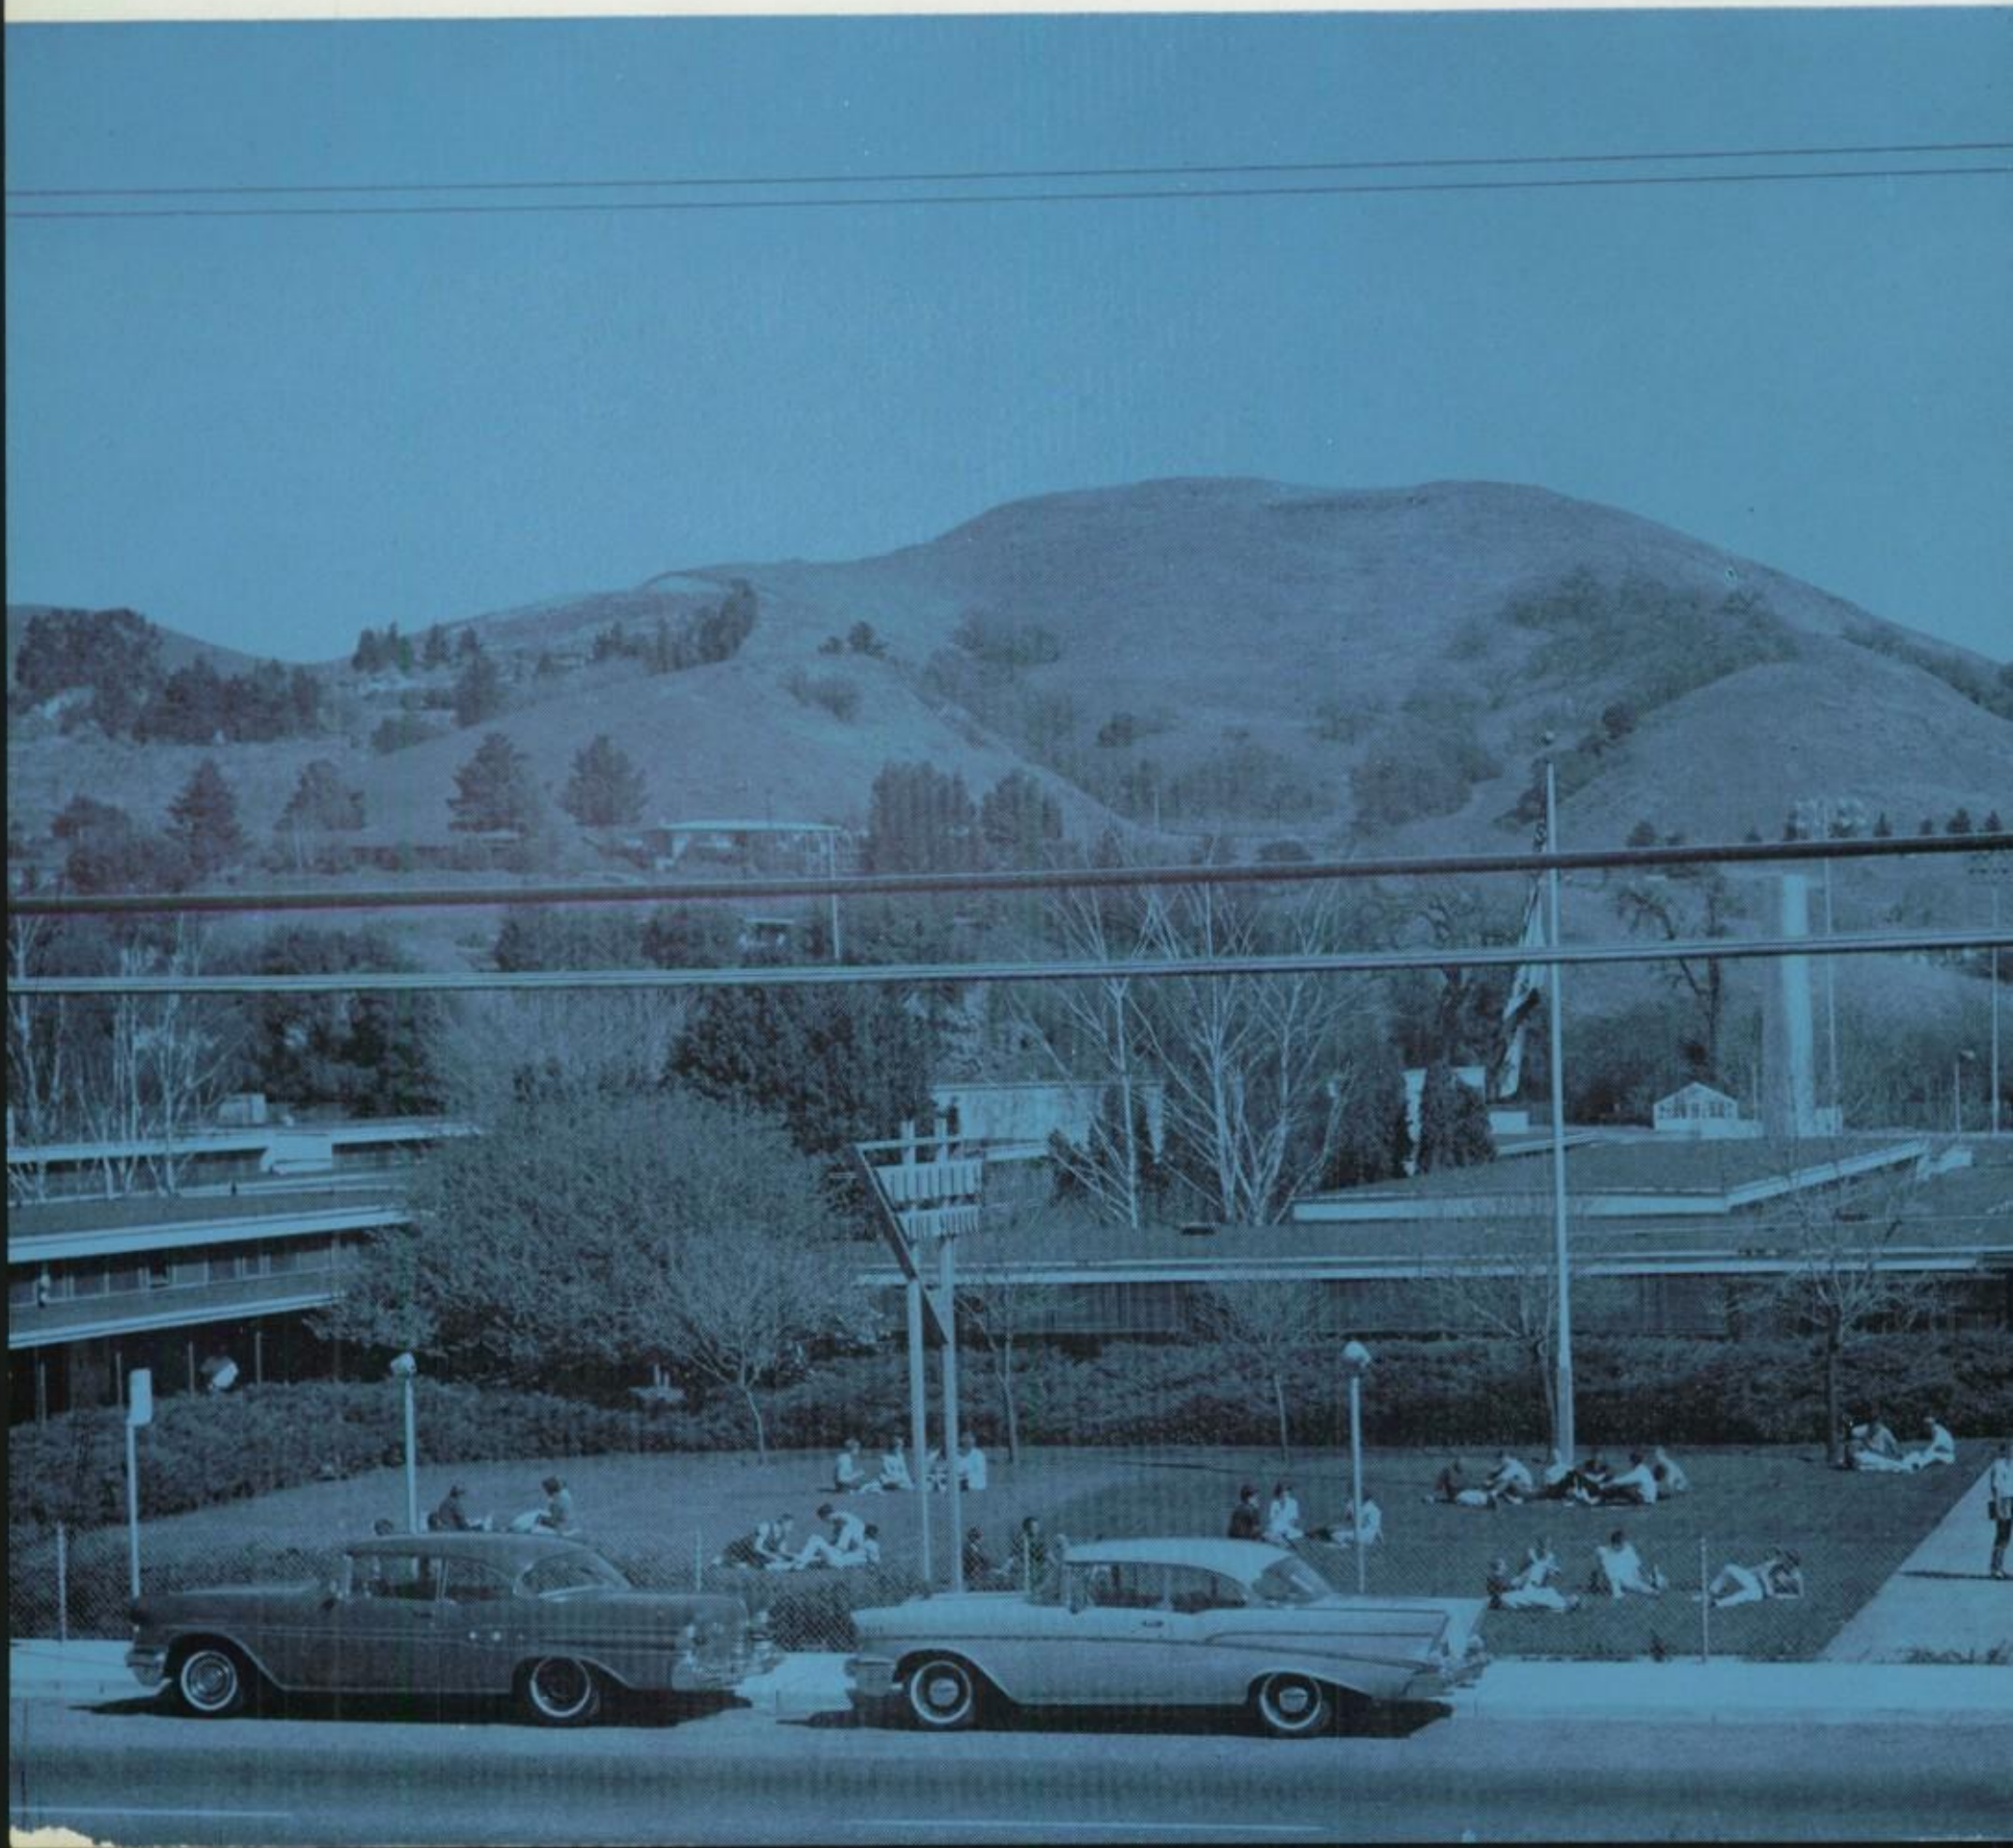

Acalanes High School is privileged to have these teachers on its faculty, and it is to them that this book is sincerely dedicated.

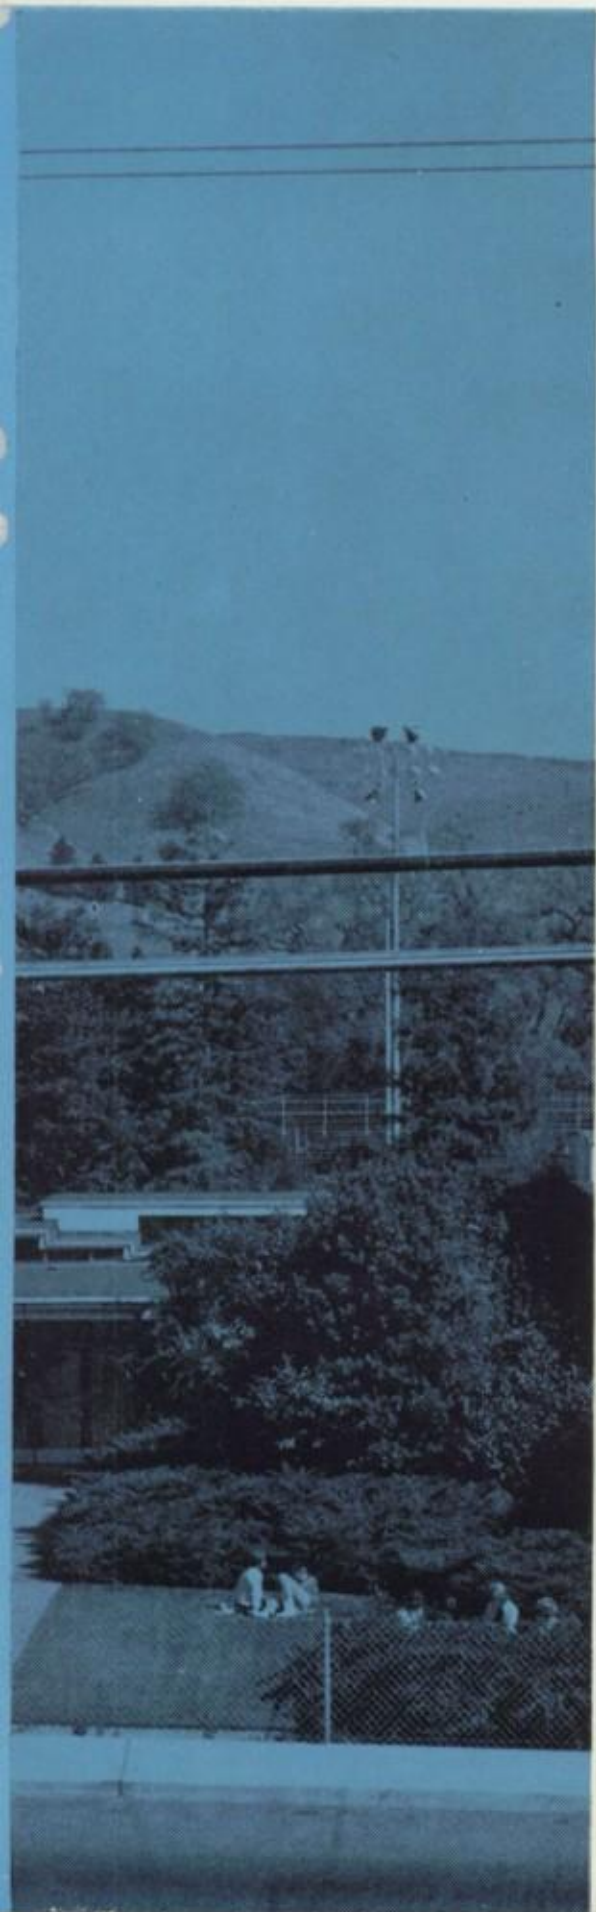

Mr. Kaufman adjusts some of the equipment used by his auto shop classes.

Mr. Black's Mechanical Drawing students quickly learn the importance of accuracy in their work.

To The Students of Acalanes High School:

This Aklan concerns itself not only with your academic endeavors but also with your extra-curricular life. Between its covers lie the memories of Fall and football, Winter and the Operetta, Spring and the Senior Ball. It is a record of what you did, of the friends you made, and of the activities you had in the intervals between class sessions, study hours, and mid-term and final examinations.

The Aklan does not attempt to review your education because that, presumably, has been permanently engraved on your mind and molded into your character. Going to school is not simply a process of acquiring knowledge and facility in its use. It is also a process of joining a company of students who share certain ideals of loyalty, of duty, and of responsibility towards the community which made that institution possible. This yearbook is your proof that during the Fall, Winter, and Spring months you were a member of such a company.

To the class of 1964 this Aklan commemorates the end of one period of your life and marks the beginning of another. The future awaits you and with it my best wishes.

Sincerely,

Stanley W. Walgren

DEAN OF GIRLS

The Acalanes High School Activities Calendar bulges with opportunities. There were thirty-six Fridays this school year. Did you enjoy the football, basketball, baseball games? The track and swim meets? The Senior Play, Christmas Program, Operetta, Musance and the dances? Did you take part in club or class activities, committees, or assemblies, thereby earning yourself an "A" in citizenship while doing a service for others? If you answer, "Yes," to any part of these questions you have increased your enjoyment of Fall, Winter, and Spring at Acalanes and gained a valuable experience. If not—you missed an opportunity!

Vera M. Richardson

DEAN OF BOYS

At Acalanes we strive for an educational experience that will prepare students to confidently assume their places in society.

The activity program is one important facet of the student's educational experience. Through this program a student can put to practice such learned reactions as: working with others; democratic practices and procedures; group organization; accepting responsibility; following directions; completing assigned tasks; honesty and integrity.

We know that students looking back on their high school tenure remember fondly their experiences in the activity program. We strongly urge everyone to take advantage of this opportunity while in high school.

Senior History

On June 11, graduation brought an end to the experiences of the Class of '64 at Acalanes. Though the seniors looked forward to new opportunities, they also remembered the four years that they spent here.

They entered high school as eager and enthusiastic freshmen, many of them subdued by a somewhat awesome respect for the upperclassmen. They received an introduction to Acalanes and a sense of confidence at the traditional Frosh Orientation Day. It was not long before the Class of '64 settled down to the usual high school life of studies, government, and activities. They elected Bill McHale president, Tom Alexander vice-president, Marcy Crockett secretary, Julie Tucker treasurer, and Carolyn Rossi social secretary. Later in the year they elected a whole new slate of officers. Their Frosh Frolic, "Spring Fever" was, happily, a success. They learned about two-hour finals and new grading systems, and they greeted the summer with feelings of both relief and accomplishment.

The Class of '64 returned in September as veterans of Acalanes. The sophomores proudly sponsored an orientation for the freshmen. This year they needed only one group of officers: Mike Hallock, president; Frank Colwell, vice-president; Julie Alves, secretary; Janet Hicks, treasurer; and Nancy Hopper, social secretary. They continued their social success with the memorable dance, the "Sophomo Side Show" and astonished the Seniors by winning the homecoming float contest.

Working under officers Mark Silliphant, Dick Van

Loben Sels, Virginia Stone, Carolyn Shidler, and Kathy Maraglia, the Senior Class of '64 enjoyed a year that was in many ways outstanding. They earned far more money for senior activities than any previous class, generously gave part of it to the yearbook, and set aside another portion for their senior gift. During football season, they demonstrated their enthusiasm by building the prize-winning float Three Coins In A Fountain for homecoming. In basketball they helped the team on to a showing equal to the previous years. They selected a color scheme for their senior activities, and in May they all enjoyed the banquet, Red Sails In The Sunset. Then came the lovely Senior Ball, Rhapsody In Blue. Graduation night was highlighted by "Candlelight and Gold," the Senior All-Night.

The student body officers worked as a unit to carry out student body affairs. They held regular meetings to plan the agenda of the student council meetings and attended the quarterly Foothill Inter-school Council meetings. In addition, they fulfilled the responsibilities which their individual offices entailed. President Mike Hallock was in charge of student council and acted as the general head of the student body. Nick McConaughy, our vice-president, planned and presided over all assemblies. As chief justice, Rich Smith worked hard to organize and supervise student control. Secretary Janet Hicks kept the student body informed of government activities. Pam Platt co-ordinated our various social activities, and Treasurer Bev Davis handled school finances. Sonja Neblett organized the many club activities, and Eric Neighbor, our Head Yell Leader, kept school spirit high throughout the sports season.

The officers were assisted by Student Council.

STUDENT CONTROL

This year student Control did a commendable job of supervising the activities of the rest of the student body. A new Student Control Code, adopted in September, provided for the election of officials from each class. The 36 members benefitted from the leadership of Chief Justice Rich Smith and their advisor, Mr. Olson. By restricting their duties to the supervision of the library and the cafeteria line at noon, Student Control made itself a more effective group.

Los Amigos

Los Amigos was organized to help orient and introduce new students to Acalanes. This year "The Friends" have expanded their activities in serving students here and in less fortunate areas. Under the leadership of Phil Smith and the advisorship of Mrs. Leal and Mr. Wicks, the eighteen junior and senior members introduced "Bundle Days" to Acalanes. Working through the Save the Children Federation, they collected clothes for underprivileged students. They also initiated the practice of sending cards to students who had a prolonged illness or a death in the family.

In addition to these new activities, the members of Los Amigos carried on the traditional functions of the club. Before school started, they welcomed the Class of '67 to Acalanes with a Freshman Orientation Day and sponsored the Big-Little Sister Picnic for senior and freshmen girls. During the first week of school they held an orientation for transfer students and the annual Get Acquainted Dance. In October they published a handy student directory, "Don's Dailin's." Throughout the year, Los Amigos was a service club of value to Acalanes.

Rally

Under the system initiated in 1962, new Rally Committee members were selected at the beginning of each athletic season. An executive board was elected by and from the members of the fall committee, and these individuals served for the entire year, with the advisor, Mr. Whyte. President Jim Schrupp presided at all meetings and co-ordinated all Rally activities. As vice-president, Mary Stewart was in charge of all rallies. Secretary Marca Mortenson kept records of the black marks accumulated by members who failed to carry out their responsibilities, as three black marks meant expulsion from Rally. Treasurer John Worthing handled the thousands of dollars collected at the beginning of the year when Rally Committee sold Aklans and Student Body Cards.

Aklan Staff

Each page of the Aklan has special memories for members of the staff. Hours of organization, writing, proof-reading and typing have all gone into creating the book. Hopefully for the last time the staff spent hours soliciting ads to finance the book. School clubs and the senior class generously donated part of their funds towards meeting the cost of producing this year's Aklan.

The organization of the Aklan was completely revised. The book's new chronological arrangement enabled the reader to scan the Aklan with each season of the school year organized before him.

For the first time since 1955, more pages were added to the book. Mr. Dessler, in his first year as Aklan advisor, instilled a sense of pride and understanding in the work done by the staff. Although he had no previous experience, except working on a yearbook staff in high school, Mr. Dessler attacked the monumental task with vigor and enthusiasm that contributed to a very fine, high quality yearbook.

A world entirely different from the average classroom best described the "Acalanes Blueprint" headquarters. Everywhere one was met by busy newspapermen and women following their varied jobs. Putting out the Blueprint was not just its distribution to students every three weeks. Behind this final step were such tasks as gathering the news and story write-ups by Journalism I students, layouts costing about $175.00 reach the readers' hands. The problem of financing the Blueprint was solved by selling ads, fund-raising drives, and publishing the Don Literary Magazine which this year was entitled Who's Who in the Acalanes Zoo. All was skillfully supervised by Mr. Mayes who concluded, "Teaching journalism and producing the Blueprint was a fascinating experience. One never knew from the moment what new crisis would arise. Seventh period in room 108 could best be described as "occasionally organized chaos."

Instrumental Music

Instrumental music at Acalanes encompassed several organizations: the Marching Band, which became the Symphonic Band at the close of football season, the Baroque Orchestra, the Stage Band, Intermediate Band, and Beginning Instruments. Under Mr. D'Amante, the band and the orchestra joined with the vocal department and dance group to present the Christmas Program and Musance. Other highlights of the year for instrumental music included the State and District Music Festivals, the Northern California Honor Orchestra, and the Solo Ensemble Festival.

The Stage Band and Operetta Orchestra were composed of members from the performing groups. The Stage Band played by special request at Skyline High School. The Operetta Orchestra with the A Cappella choir presented "Annie Get Your Gun."

Vocal Music

With over one-fourth of the student body involved, the Vocal Music Department is one of the most important organizations at Acalanes. Mr. Hansen directed the five choirs in programs presented to the school and the community. The first performance for the student body was the traditional, "Christmas at Acalanes," in which both the vocal and instrumental music departments and dance group took part. These groups later participated in the spring Musance.

In March A Cappella and the Operetta Orchestra presented Irving Berlin's musical comedy, Annie, Get Your Gun, to an enthusiastic audience on three successive evenings. Cheryl Block played the title role, while Dan Boyle portrayed Frank Butler. The entire department is to be congratulated for the fine performances throughout the year.

American Field Service

I came to the United States to widen my views, exchange ideas, and learn to know the country not as a tourist but from day-to-day living. My expectations turned out in realities somewhat different from the ones I expected, but I have achieved even more than I had hoped. The adjustments were more difficult and the emotional stress harder than I had thought they would be. Days came when I felt that I had misunderstood, and been misunderstood by, everybody. Because of these difficulties, however, I have grown and learned even more.

I have found that I have been able to broaden my knowledge not only through Americans, but Brazilians, Australians, Germans, Indians, and people of many other nationalities. I hope to be able to use my experiences in furthering international relations in the future.

Above all, the daily personal relations will remain strongest in my memory when I go home; how I cried with you on some days and laughed with you on many others. I have made friends I shall never forget. Thank you all for the most instructive, interesting, and wonderful year I have ever had.

Christina Unell
Sweden

I consider myself a very lucky boy by having the opportunity to spend this year at Acalanes. I think that in this year I learned much more than in all other years of my life. By meeting people, by living with a different family, by going to a different school I now understand more what the problems of the world are. Never before have people given such importance to my ideas. Now I have ways to express my opinions. In our schools, teachers look at us only as students; here in the United States the relationship between students and teachers is much bigger, and the students have a greater influence on the running of the school. I will never forget this year. I learned what democracy is, and I hope when I go back to Brazil I can use part of my experience to develop a little more my country. I would like to say thank you to all, because without you Americans, my experience could not have been complete.

American Field Service

During the 1963-1964 school year, American Field Service sponsored two exchange students, Christina Unell of Sweden and Eduardo Camara of Brazil. At the start of the year a smörgåsbord was held in honor of Christina. On Halloween, two hundred students collected a record $1800 to be used to bring exchange students to Acalanes in the future. In December, Kelley Wisner, Chris Cammisa, and Bruce Shepard were selected as applicants for the Americans Abroad program, and in January, Kelley left for a year in Johannesburg, South Africa. During February, Rama Misra of India and Carl Wennerstan of Norway spent a week at Acalanes under the exchange week program. Miss Dyer and Mr. Garvey supervised all activities.

Folk Craze

"Sing me a song,
Sing it soft and low.
Sing it for your baby,
And then I'll have to go . . ."

Rooted deep in man's desire to express himself, folksinging has always been an integral part of mankind. Traditional folk music has always attracted those who feel they have something to say and those who simply want to be entertained.

The students of Acalanes adopted folk music immediately, not to philosophize but to enjoy themselves. Groups of amateur singers organized hootenannies to exchange songs and guitar techniques. Every student was exposed to both ethnic and commercial strains of folk music during lunch. The more dedicated folk enthusiasts attempted to lure new blood to the mushrooming folk "craze" by playing folk music over the P.A. system. Sing-alongs disrupted placid classes as folk music finally overcame the barriers surrounding studying.

Bill McHale brought his guitar to school for lunchtime entertainment.

Joan Pierson was among the many students who found interest in playing the guitar this year.

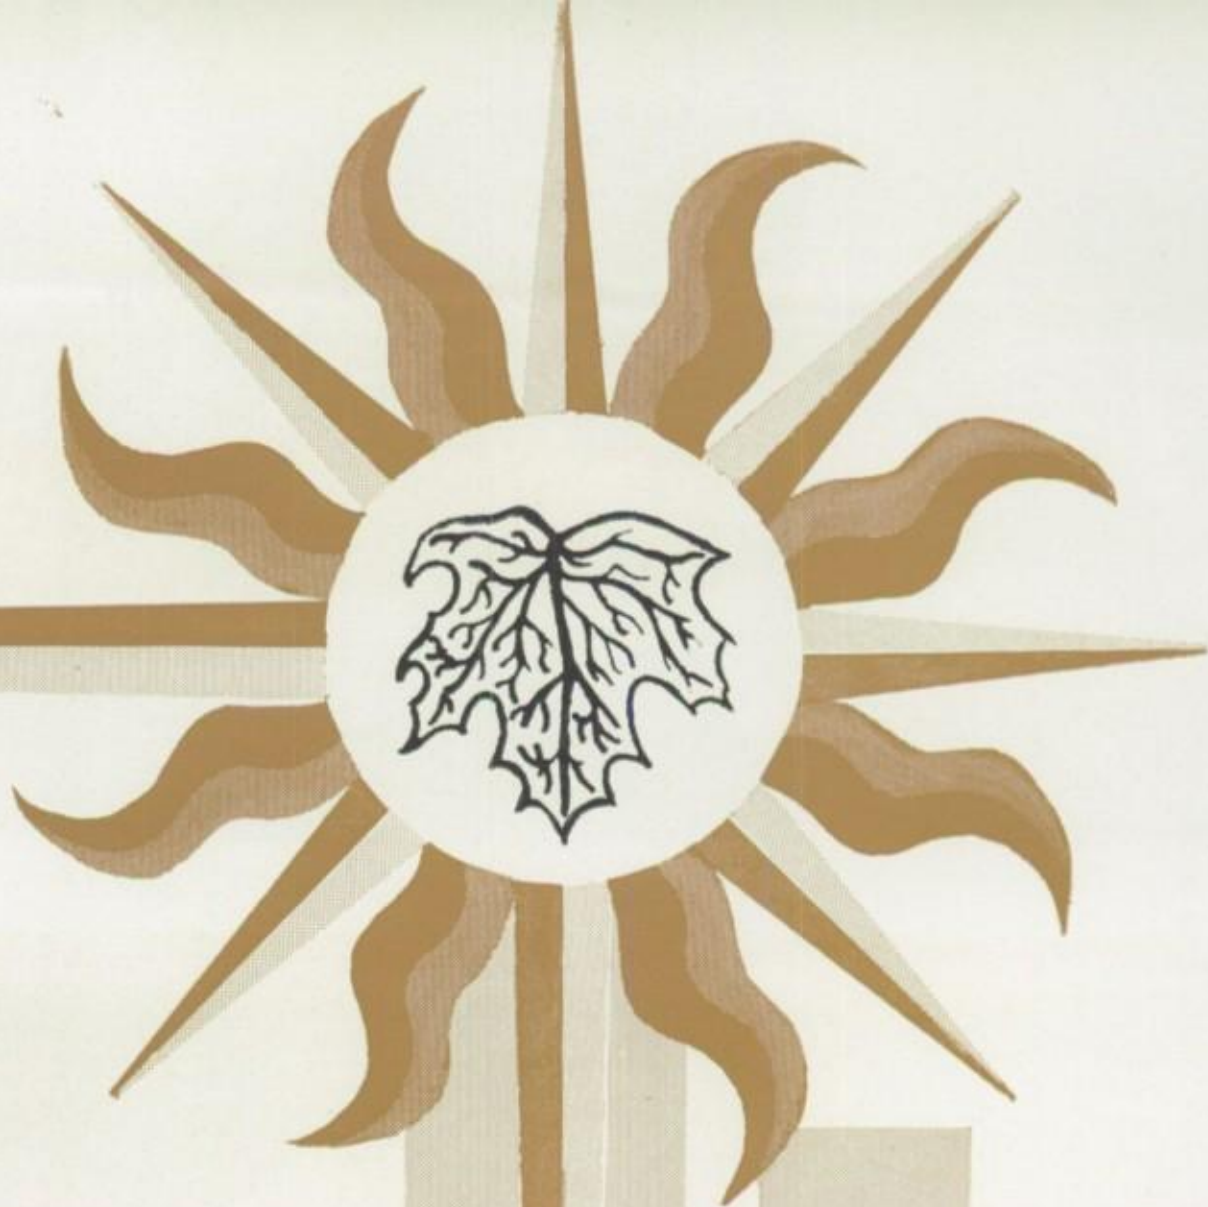

Jenny, Cherie, and Cheryl learned the words to folk songs done by Peter, Paul and Mary.

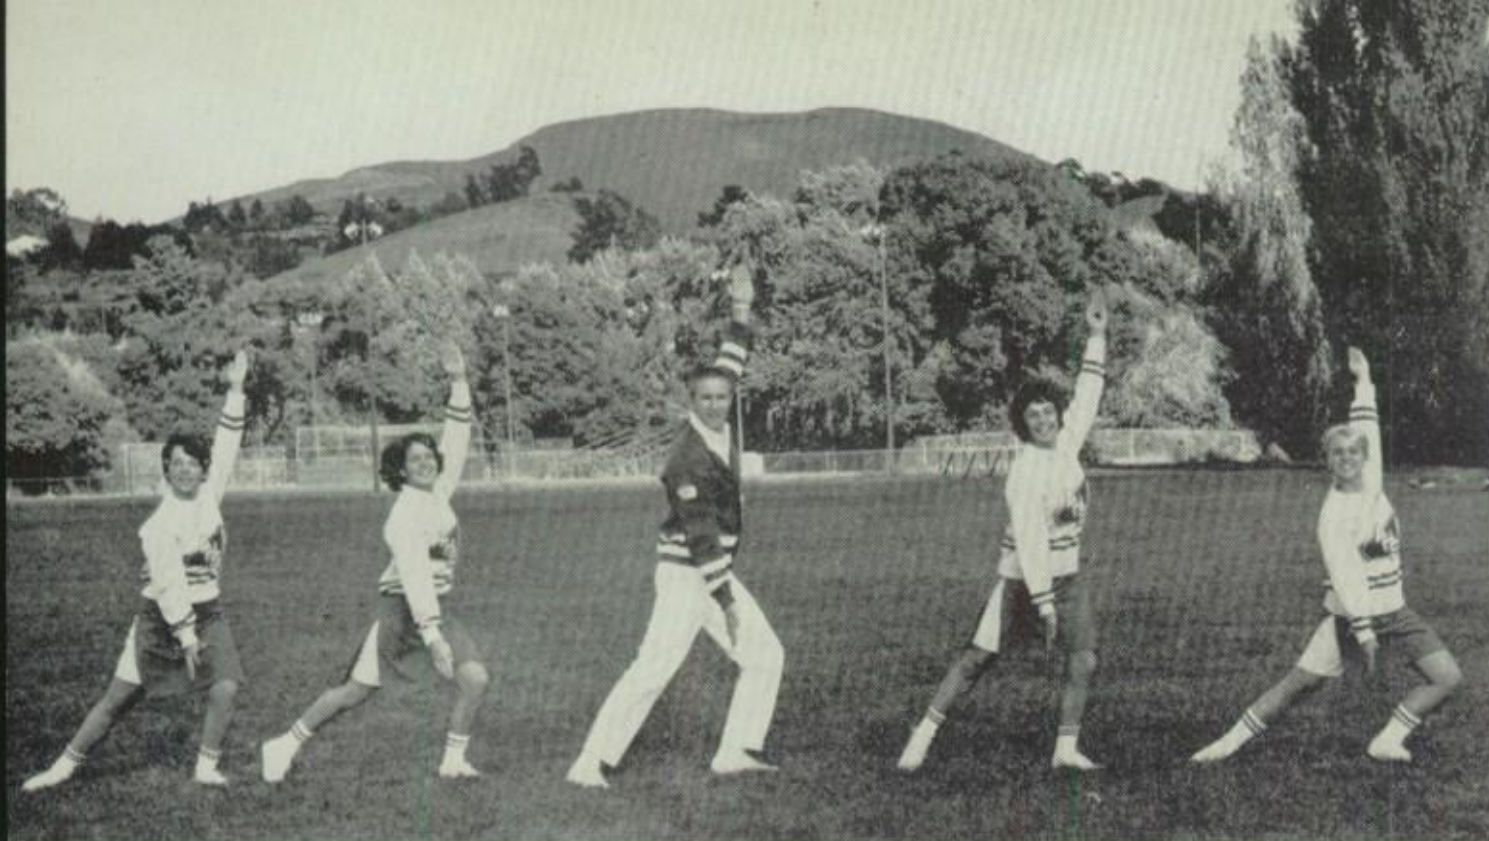

A group of students gathered on the lawn and sang "Where Have All The Flowers Gone?"

C. S. F.

In recognition of having earned at least three "A's" and one "B" the previous semester, students were eligible for membership in C.S.F. Seniors who had been members four of the previous six semesters became life members.

Members enjoyed such special privileges as permanent library passes, a tour of the University of California at Davis and attended a Giant's baseball game. Two fifty-dollar scholarships were given for outstanding participation in C.S.F. These were financed by cake sales, book cover sales, and the Mardi Gras.

Acalhonors

Every year at the beginning of each semester signups are taken for Acalhonors, an Acalanes honor society. It is the hope of this honor club to instill excellence in academic courses. Therefore, students earning either one A and three B's or 5 B's in any course except Physical Education are eligible for membership in this honor group. All members of C.S.F. automatically qualify for membership. Supervising the organization this year were Mrs. Busby and Mr. Dessler.

Rally Committee

During football season the Rally Committee performed a myriad of duties. This season's members decorated our goal posts for home games, often at the risk of life and limb. During football games Rally sold snowcones, popcorn, and candy to famished football fans. At after-game dances, Coke was sold to thirsty dancers by the Rally Committee. Weekly, Rally members adorned the halls with ingenious, gaily decorated posters announcing the week's sports events. Organizing and presenting the clever Rally skit at the homecoming rally was one of the committee's most enjoyable tasks.

Student Council

Under the leadership of Student Body President Mike Hallock, the Student Council began another year's work with the usual passing of appropriation of money bills. After the normal amount of money had been dispersed, Student Council turned to the real work of the first semester. A new system for Student Control had to be adopted and the Student Council had many meetings before the final plan was accepted.

Our Town

Thornton Wilder's Our Town has been called the perfect play. It is a depiction of small town life at the turn of the century. The simplicity of its plot and theme has made the play one of the most popular in the United States.

On the 8th and 9th of November the Class of '64 presented Our Town, directed by Mr. Reeves, to the Lafayette community.

"Our Town"

"Blessed be the tie that binds,
Our hearts in Christian love.
The fellowship of kindred minds,
Is like to that above."

Stage Manager: "So people a thousand years from now, this is the way we were in our living, in our marrying, and in our dying."

Mrs. Gibbs: "Frank, I'm worried about you."

Mr. Gibbs: "Well, what are you worried about?"

Mrs. Gibbs: "I think it's my duty to make plans for you to get a real rest and change."

Mrs. Webb: "Howie Newsome

Mr. Webb: "Yes? Well, it's colder than that at Hamilton College.
Students' ears are falling off. It ain't Christian."

Varsity Football

The Acalanes Varsity Football team, under first-year coach George Cockerton and assistant coach Erwin Mattson, finished fourth. After a pre-season loss and a win, the Dons fell into a four game losing streak, dropping each game by no more than a touchdown.

The offense hit its high point of the season in a 20-13 victory over Alhambra, highlighted by a 20-yard touchdown pass from Tom Alexander to Bob Siefker.

The quality of the Dons' team members was seen in the post-season pick of the all-league positions. Bob Brabant, linebacker, Don Albright, defensive end, and Jim Garver, center, were named to the starting all-league team. Receiving honorable mention were Larry Gomez, Al Bartolozzi, and Mike Hallock.

Coached by Ron Sterni, the Acalanes Junior Varsity football team had a winning season for the first time in many years. Although hampered by injuries to key players throughout the year, the Dons won five games and lost four, finishing in the top half of the Foothill League. The Dons proved to have an explosive offense. Leading the attack were backfield stars Larry Tietig and Mark McDougall and excellent linemen Rich Barcroft, Gary Shaw, and Eric Kendall. Catching vital passes were ends Rick Sullivan and Wayne Wilkinson. With the ability to play winning football, these players can be termed excellent varsity material.

Frosh Football

The Freshman Football team finished fourth in the Foothill Athletic League with a season record of two wins and five losses. Coached by Mr. Dobbins and Mr. Thurling, the Baby Dons got off to a quick start with an upset victory over the Piedmont Highlanders. The Frosh lost their next two games and then defeated San Ramon in the Don's only other win of the season.

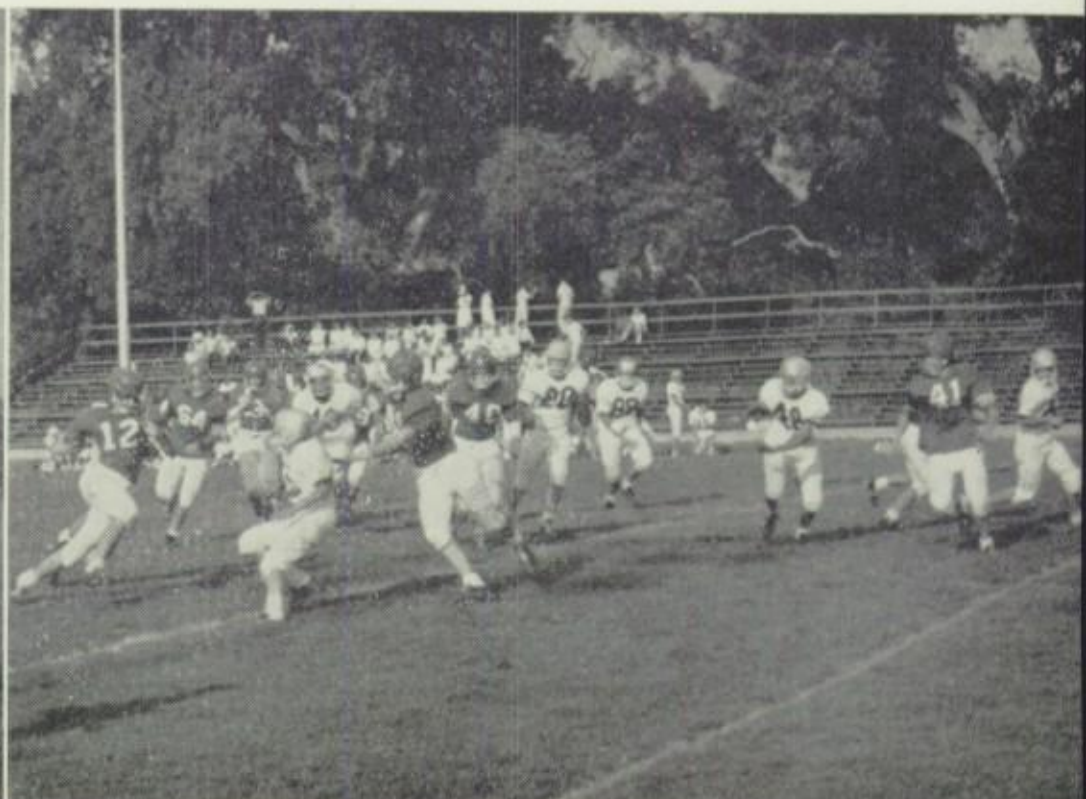

There were several outstanding individual efforts. Halfbacks Ron Sutrov, Randy Knudsen, Pete Jay, and Doug Leonard played outstanding offensive. They were supported on the line by Bob Pickett, Jeff Pickett, and Jeff Cook.

Spanish Honorary

El "Spanish Honorary Club" ha llevado a cabo muchas actividades. Tal vez el acontecimiento más llamativo del año es nuestra tradicional venta de "esclavos." Varios miembros de la promoción de los Seniors hicieron de "esclavos." Estos añadidos al gusto de sus "dueños" tratan de cumplir sus ridículas órdenes. Esta venta resulta divertida tanto para los participantes como para los demás.

En el "Spring Quarter" participaremos en el Mardi Gras y finalmente pensamos visitar las misiones en la costa. En gran parte, el éxito de este club se debe al entusiasmo de nuestro presidente Jim Garver y al de los otros funcionarios, Rich Smith, Tanya Woodruff, Nancy Peacock, y Joan Pierson. La Señorita Sifuentes es nuestra "adviser."

La Fleur de Lys

Cette année les étudiants de Français IV participèrent à beaucoup d'activités comme membres de la Fleur de Lys. Par exemple, la Fleur de Lys célébra la fête de Noël à la belle maison d'une de ses membres, Lynda Faye. Plus tard dans l'année, on eut deux ventes de pâtisseries françaises, parce que le club eut l'intention de donner une bourse au meilleur élève de la classe de 1964. La première, le jour de St. Valentine, et la seconde, pendant le Mardi Gras. En octobre, les membres firent une excursion à San Francisco pour voir le Festival Français et visiter l'exposition des oeuvres de Rodin au musée. A Noël, on alla à Berkeley voir un film français, "Symphonie Pastorale", par Andre Gidé, et ensuite, on jouit une soirée pleine de gaieté et de rafraîchissements délicieux. Vers la fin de l'année scolaire, on eut l'Initiation traditionnelle des étudiants de Français III, une cérémonie toute française à la lumière de longues chandelles blanches. En somme, la Fleur de Lys réussit à donner à ses membres une plus grande appréciation de l'esprit et du beau pays de France.

Soph Hop

This year the enterprising Sophomores under the direction of Social Secretary Becky McKee organized the second dance of their high school career. As guests entered the gym, their glances were first caught by the decorations. Following the "Harvest Hop" theme, the Sophs had erected cornstalks and a scarecrow. Entertainment at the beginning of the dance was provided by George Tickner's group, The Castillians. During intermission came the enjoyable ethnic folk music of the King Brothers. Original decorations and entertainment contributed to a very successful dance.

After-Game Dances

After-game dances played an integral part in outside activities during football and basketball season. The Parents' Club generously sponsored these dances, the most successful of the year. Among the most popular were the Homecoming and Victory dances. Both the students who attended the games and some who did not found the after-game dances very enjoyable. Decorations and professional entertainment were not necessary to make these dances a success.

C. S. F.

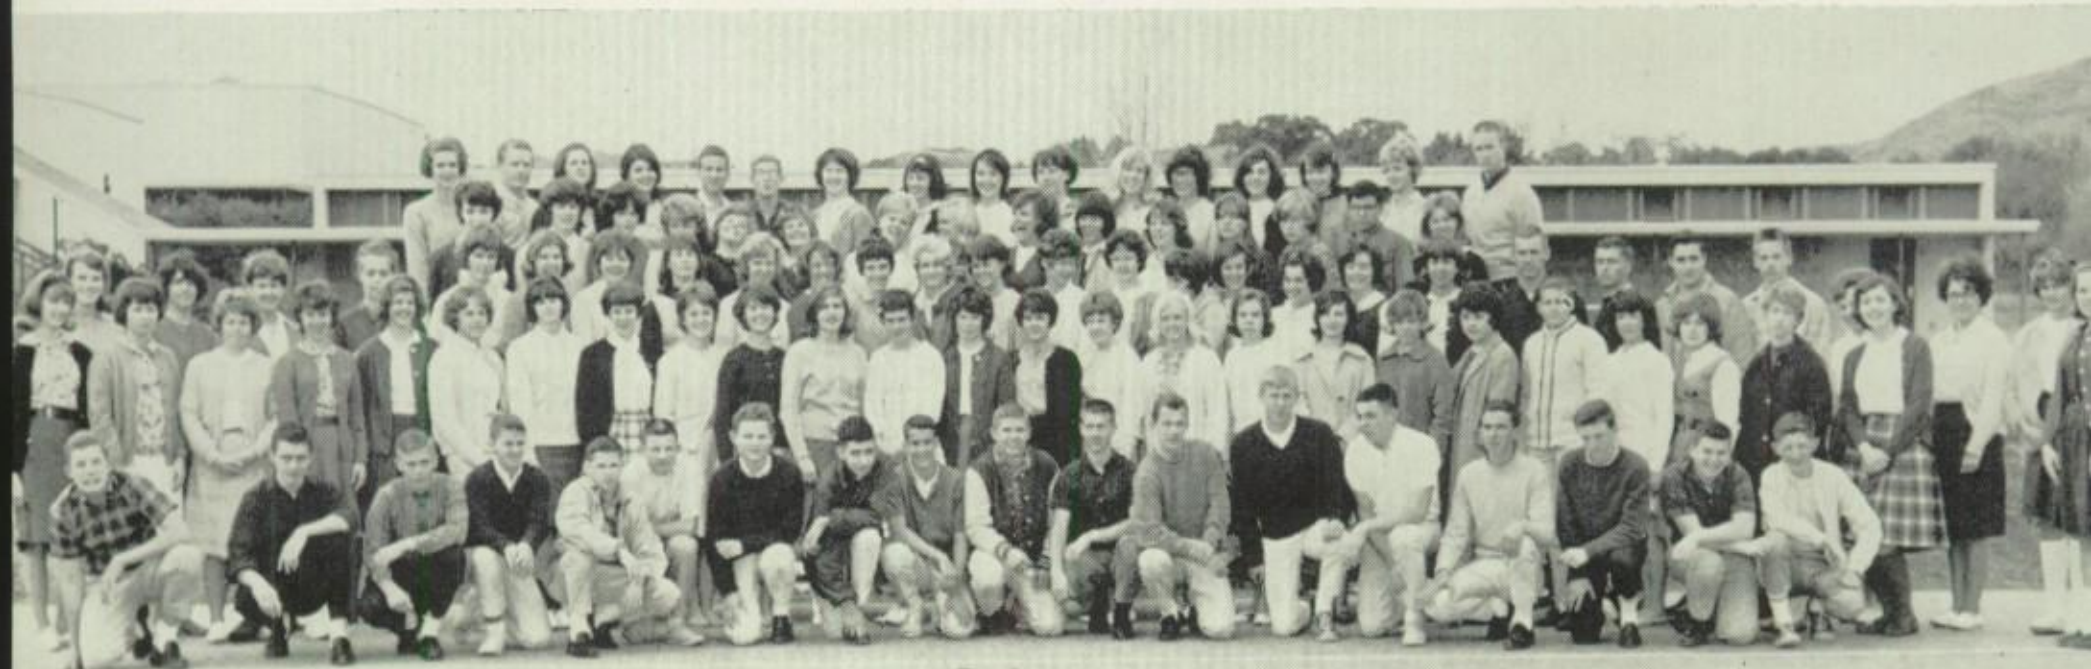

Membership requirements for California Scholarship Federation were altered in January, as it was announced by the District Office that the Acalanes requirements were more stringent than those of the other schools in the area. Under the new regulations, all "A" grades are worth three points, and all "B" grades are worth one point. However, six of the ten points needed for membership must be earned in academic subjects, and all solids must be counted when computing points. Officers for the year were Steve Shank, president; Ginny Dueschle, vice-president; Delphine Cannon, treasurer; and Virginia Stone, secretary.

Acalhonors

Acalhonors is the second school honor roll group. Requirements for membership are one "A" and three "B's" or five "Bs" in any course except P.E. All C.S.F.'ers are automatically members of Acalhonors. This honor society has for many years served as a stepping stone to higher academic success.

Rally

Winter Rally was in charge of promoting spirit for the basketball and wrestling seasons. Under the advisorship of Mr. Whyte, the committee had the privilege of being the first Rally Committee to host games in the new gym; one of their principal responsibilities was protecting the new floor. Rally spirit resulted in large crowds of students at the games and helped urge the teams on to a winning season.

Fall Student Council

Student council met every other Thursday in the library. The first major issue raised was the need for a new student control code. Chief Justice Rich Smith introduced a plan to student council in September, and after minor revisions, the code was adopted.

Later the student council initiated a regular schedule of home rooms. This action gave the entire student body a more active part in student government and provided new ideas for council business.

Finally, student council undertook a revision of the citizenship code. With the aid of the citizenship committee the council attempted to equalize point distribution and remove obsolete items from the code.

Annie, Get Your Gun

OPERETTA

Written by Irving Berlin in 1946, Annie, Get Your Gun is a musical comedy based on the life of Annie Oakley, the sharpshooter who was the star attraction of the famous Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. Cheryl Block and Dan Boyle played the leads, singing well-known songs such as "The Girl That I Marry," "You Can't Get a Man With a Gun," and "They Say That Falling in Love is Wonderful."

Excellent direction by Mr. D'Amante, Mr. Hansen, and Mr. Reeves and the hard work of A Cappella and the Operetta Orchestra made this year's operetta an unequaled success.

The lead tells us "There's No Business Like Show Business."

Tommy, Winnie, and the dancers make themselves at home at "The Wilson House."

Annie and the Porters sing a "Moonshine Lullaby" for the kids.

The Little Match Girl

The Christmas Story

She struck a match. In a vision all the toys of Christmas offered themselves to her. The little girl stretched her hands toward them, and then—out went the match.

In the light of her match, the air filled with radiance. Distinctly she saw beautiful angels float gently down to her.

The Dons basketball team won the league title for the second straight year. After a slow start in practice games, the Dons ran off three straight league wins before losing to the Clan by a single point. Squeaking by Alhambra in a hard-fought game highlighted by a last quarter rally by the Bulldogs, the Dons then crushed Miramonte and Piedmont. Although losing the services of 6' 7" center Greg Malley due to mononucleosis, the team went on to win the league with wins over Las Lomas and San Ramon.

In post-league action the Dons lost once again to the Hayward Farmers. Although they hit early for a quick 20-4 lead, the Dons slowly lost ground. Finally, Hayward took the lead for the first time in the game at the beginning of the fourth quarter and quickly pulled away to a twelve point victory.

The key to the Dons' league win was teamwork. Defensively using a tough zone defense, the Dons continually forced opposing teams into errors resulting in quick Acalanes baskets. Next year should see much of the same action. With a total of six returning varsity squad members, the Dons will have an excellent chance to take the title for the third year in a row.

This year the Acalanes Junior Varsity Basketball team finished an exciting season with a 13-6 record. They placed second in the Foothill Athletic League with a record of 11-4.

The team, led by Coach Barnett, boasted three All League team members. Jim Tucker and Steve Seely made the first team, while Curt Shaw made honorable mention.

Backcourtmen Dave Stewart, Dave Shank and Steve Seely brought the ball down to get the team's offensive machine rolling. On defense Ken Short and Jim Tucker grabbed many rebounds to keep the team in good shape.

Steve Seely and Ken Short battled the Mats for a crucial rebound.

Alan Hunt blocked a Miramonte pass.

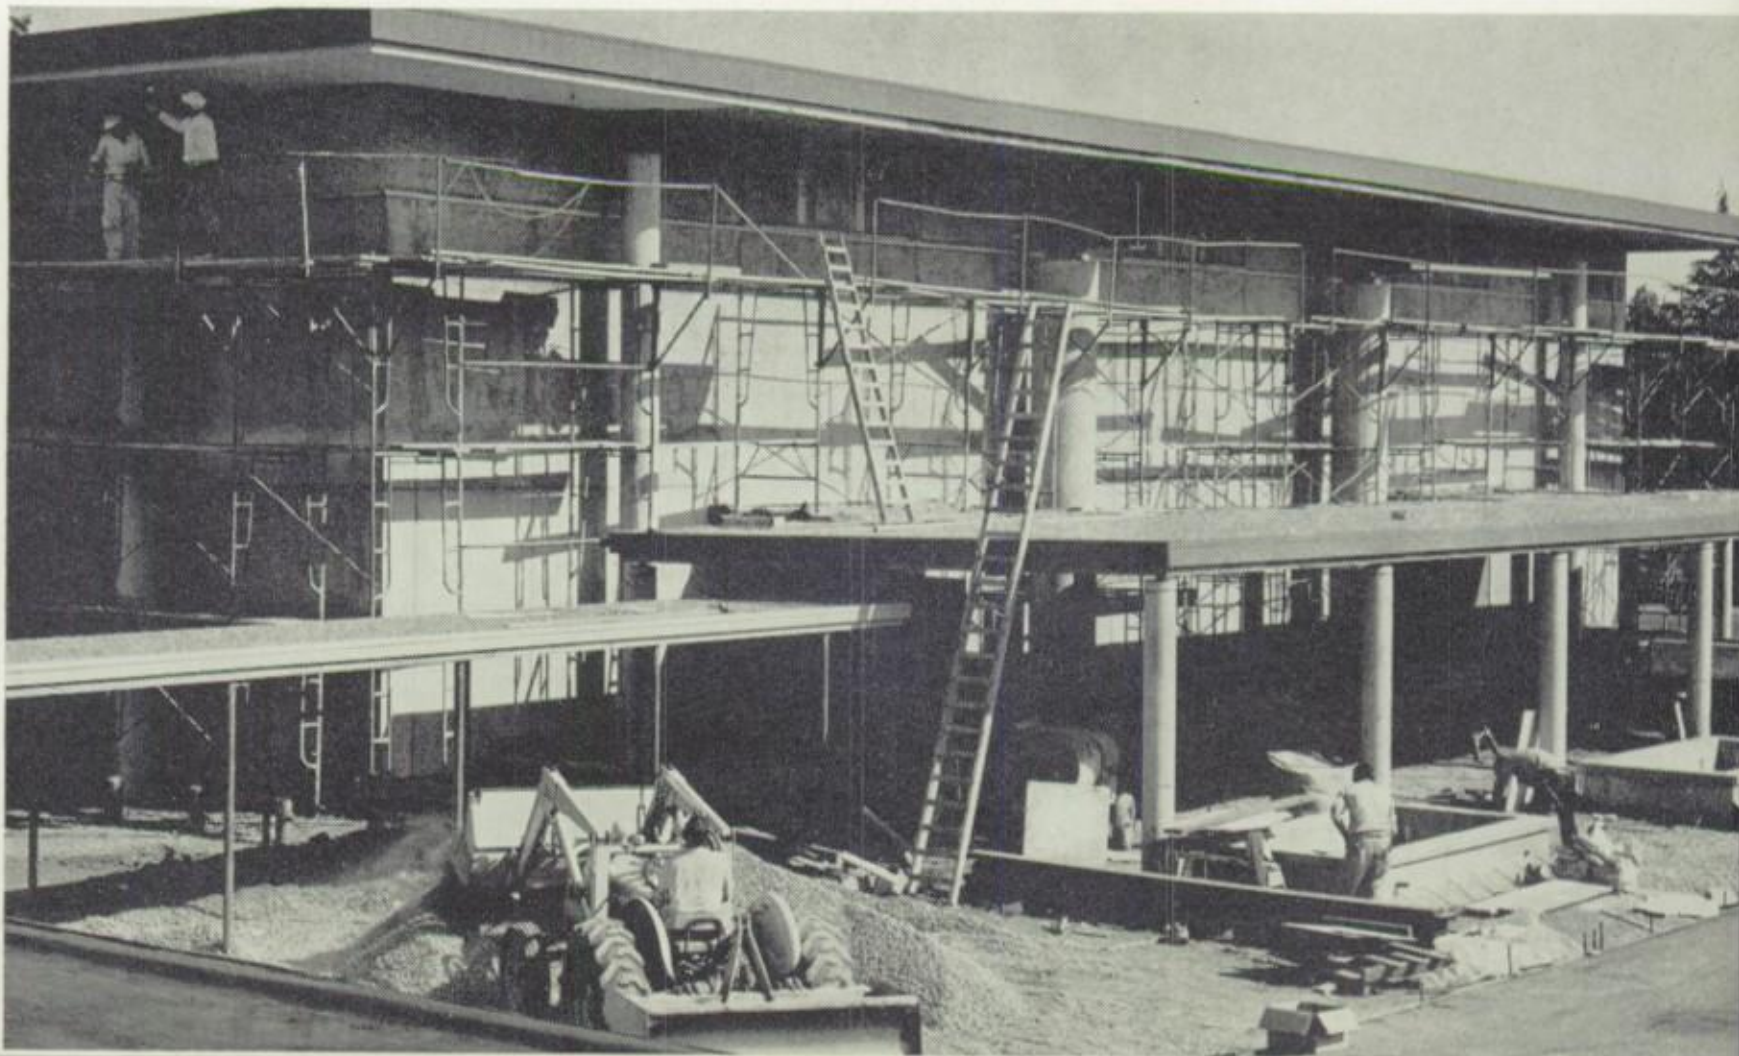

Curt Shaw, Dave Stewart, and Dave Shank waited for the rebound as Herb Hofvendahl of Miramonte went up for a shot.

New Gym

Recently, for the first time since 1959, Acalanes had a new building constructed. The new gym, costing $350,000 was completed in time for the 1963-1964 basketball season. Construction was begun in May of 1963 under the supervision of contractor Joseph A. Garavaglia of Crockett. The gym has a seating capacity of over 1200. It has room for two full length basketball courts and is equipped with two fibreglas backboards, a gift of the Class of 1963. Adding to the attractiveness of the building is the Senior Mall. Benches and planter boxes, surrounding the new gym, provide a congenial place for the students to eat their lunches.

Wrestling

This year's wrestling team went through an undefeated league season. The only loss in any of the dual meets was to Pleasant Hill. The Don's demonstrated superiority over many tough teams, including Miramonte, Hayward and College Park. Coach Erwin Mattson was particularly pleased with the Don's league victory, for it was his sixth title in seven years. Newcomers contributed greatly to the team effort. Freshmen Alan Hauskens and Randy Knudsen were regular winners. First year man Larry Gomez wrestled well in the 170-lb. division. Co-captains Bob Lewis and Rich Fisher, won the 127 and 133-lb. weight classes, respectively. Dave Toll captured the "unlimited" class. Rick Underwood went on to win fourth place at the State meet.

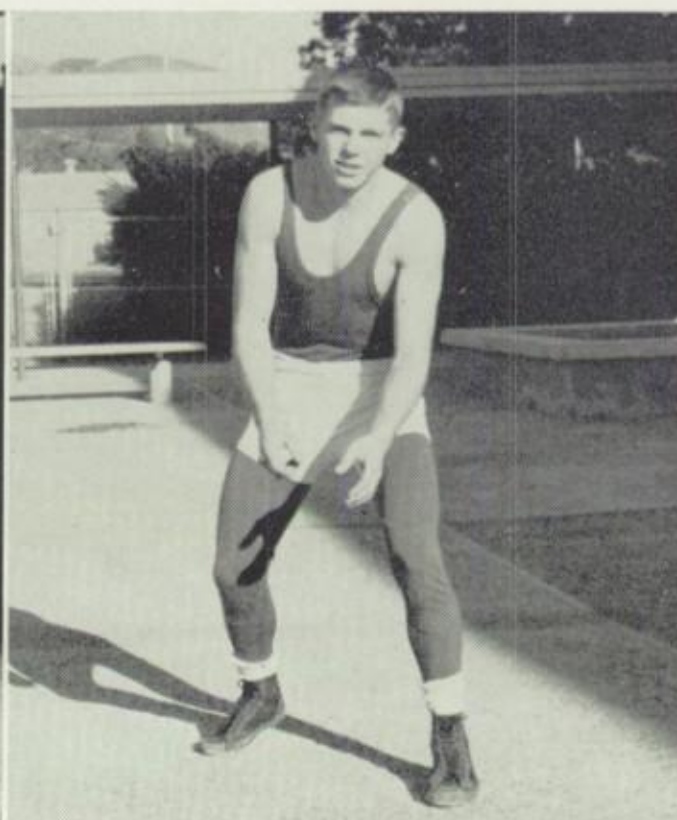

The Dons should have another strong season next year. In addition to Hauskens and Knudson, Bob Trull, Stan Wakeman, Steve Scott, Dave Toll, and Mike Pitts should form the nucleus of a strong squad.

J.V. Wrestling

The J.V. Wrestling team completed a perfect season. After breezing through four practice meets with top-caliber opponents, the J.V.'s continued their winning ways and went on to take all four league meets. The Dons began the season with a win over Hayward, a school which prides itself on its wrestling team. The J.V.'s then destroyed McClymond's by one of the most topsided wrestling scores ever recorded. The only blemish on the J.V. record was suffered at the hands of the Navato Varsity team when they entered a three-way meet.

Flip Knudson, Eric Kindall, Mike Pickett, and Barry Callister did outstanding jobs for the J.V. team. Knudson was constantly switching from Varsity to Junior Varsity, but he managed to win some important matches for the J.V.'s. Gary Oderda, Gary Shaw, Brett Bullen, Eric Hanson, and Rick Neilson rounded out the nucleus of the squad.

Victory Celebration

In celebration of this year's championship varsity wrestling and basketball teams, the yell leaders and pompon girls organized a victory party. The celebration, held in the cafeteria, was attended by more than two hundred students. The party got under way at seven o'clock and continued until nine. The coaches, Mr. Mattson and Mr. Barnett, and their wives, as well as Mr. Walgren, were in attendance. As the head yell leader read poems about each member of each team, the athlete came on stage and received a piece of cake and kiss from the pompon girls. After the presentations to the teams, there was punch, cake, and dancing for all.

Mr. Walgren congratulated the champion wrestling and basketball teams.

Cheerleaders kissed members of the wrestling team.

Informal dancing followed the victory celebration.

The coaches' wives cut the cakes presented to their husbands by the student body.

Elaine Roach stopped decorating long enough to pose for a picture.

Dancers demonstrated their twist styles.

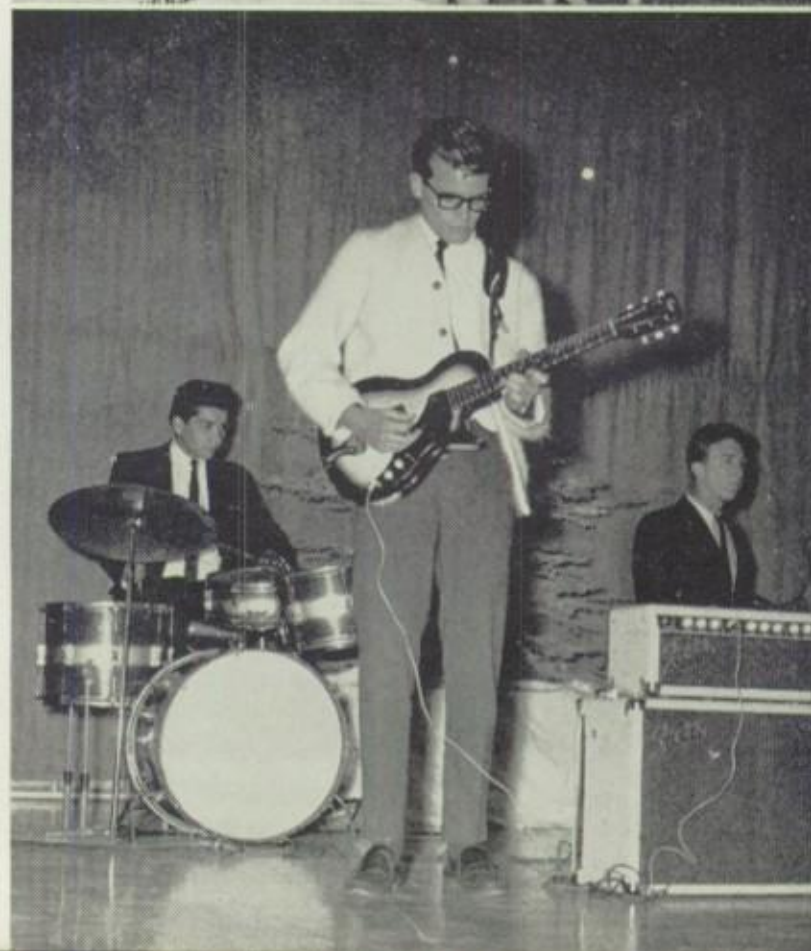

Nancy Jones, Gary Brown, Chris Johnson, escort, Pete Arbogast, and Linda Bartolozzi paused between dances.

Rhonda Croce and Alexa Esser helped with refreshments.

Music was provided by The Three Hys.

Junior Prom

This year's Junior class highlighted their year with their Junior Prom. The auditorium was thoroughly decorated after the theme "Orchids in the Snow" following a violet and white color scheme. Crepe orchids and white streamers were placed at strategic spots around the room. There were many flocked Christmas trees on the floor and a center-piece of trees and an artificial waterfall. Entertainment was provided by the "Three Hy's" who organized a versatile schedule of dances. The colorful decorations and the excellent, versatile music of the "Three Hy's" both contributed to make the Junior Prom a highly successful formal dance.

Decorations were done by a very talented
Freshman Committee

Frosh Frolic

This year's freshman dance was enjoyed by many. The Irish theme was carried out in the publicity, decorations, and bids. The success of the Shamrock was well deserved by the freshman class.

The Acalanes Dance Band played for the dancers at the Frosh Frolic

The Actor's Workshop

The Actor's Workshop presented a scene from "The Sacrifice of Isaac."

On February 6, the Actor's Workshop of San Francisco presented "Tragedies Through the Ages" to the Acalanes student body. Scenes from three tragedies were chosen as representative of drama from the last 2,000 years. Antigone, part of a trilogy by Sophocles, was the first tragedy acted. The second, The Sacrifice of Isaac, was taken from the Bible and portrayed the fear and strength of God. Melville's Billy Bud, the final and only modern tragedy presented, showed that good does not always transcend evil.

Eager students crowded into the old gym for the assembly.

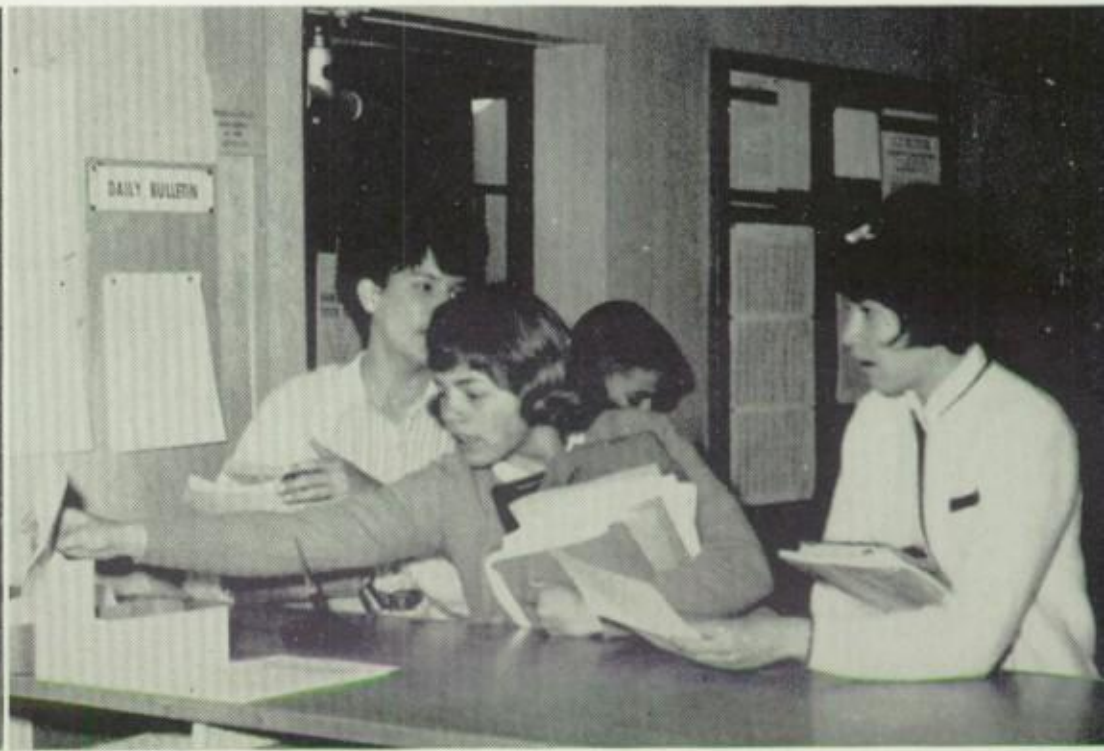

Counseling

The counseling office, an important part of the school throughout the year, was especially busy in winter. Not only were the usual counseling problems evident, but the programming of next year's students was begun. Freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and even seniors and Stanley students made their way into the office.

A prospective freshman and her mother registered at the counseling office.

Programs for the coming year were filed in the counseling office.

Mr. Bailey, head counselor, admitted juniors to the Merit Scholarship test.

Students came to the counseling office with their problems.

Noon Volleyball

Noontime activity this year centered around the volleyball games. During the winter, weekly games sponsored by Block "A" were held in the small gym. Students were allowed to eat their lunches in the gym while rooting for their favorite team. Sixteen teams started out to determine a victor. Los Amigos and the Men's Faculty defeated similar clubs and won the right to meet in the championship. Enthusiasm marked the game in which the Men's Faculty won.

As #25 jersey hung from the rim of the basket, the crowd stood at attention after the Las Lomas game. The victory was dedicated to Greg Malley, who was stricken with mononucleosis and out for the season.

The music appreciation class boarded a chartered bus for the opera.

Students rushed to the auditorium between assemblies.

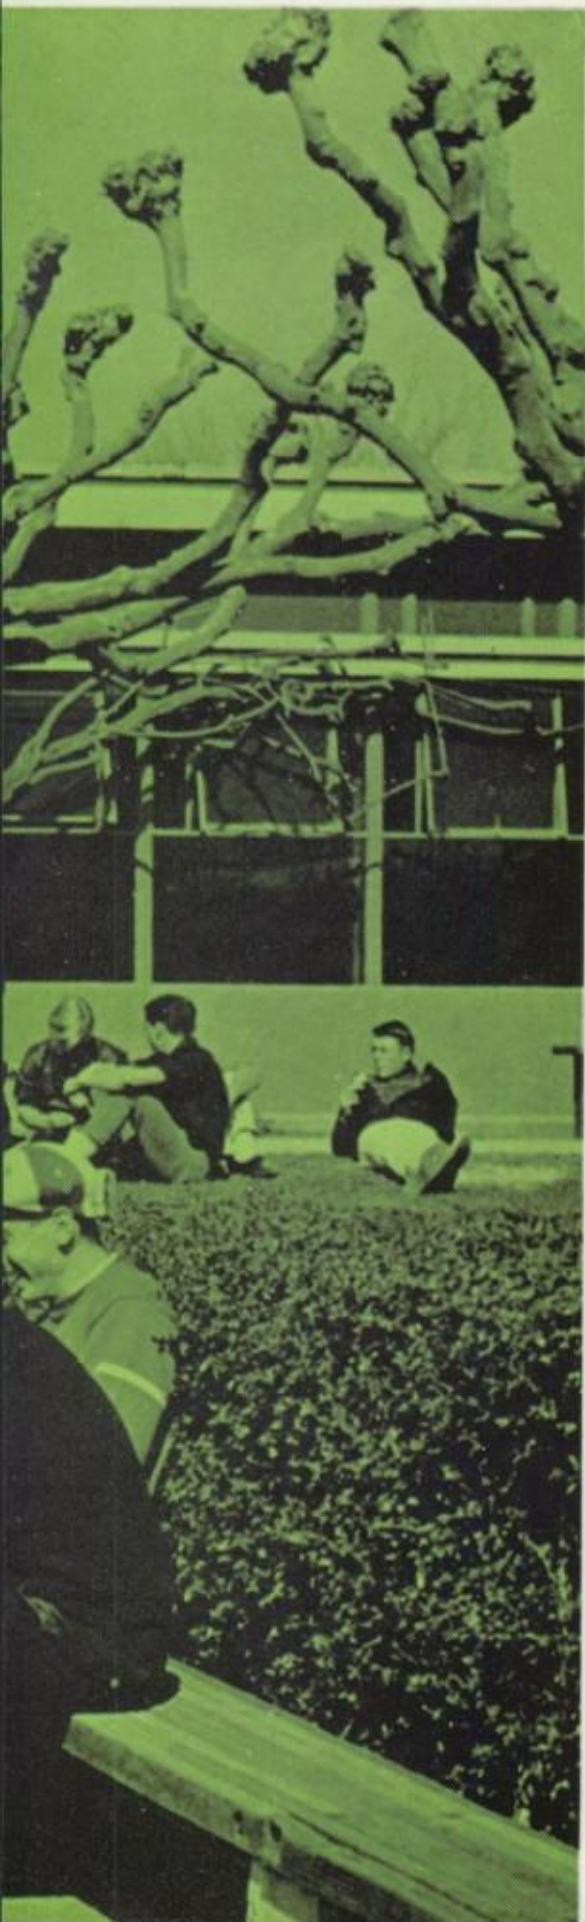

The cafeteria offered fine, hot meals.

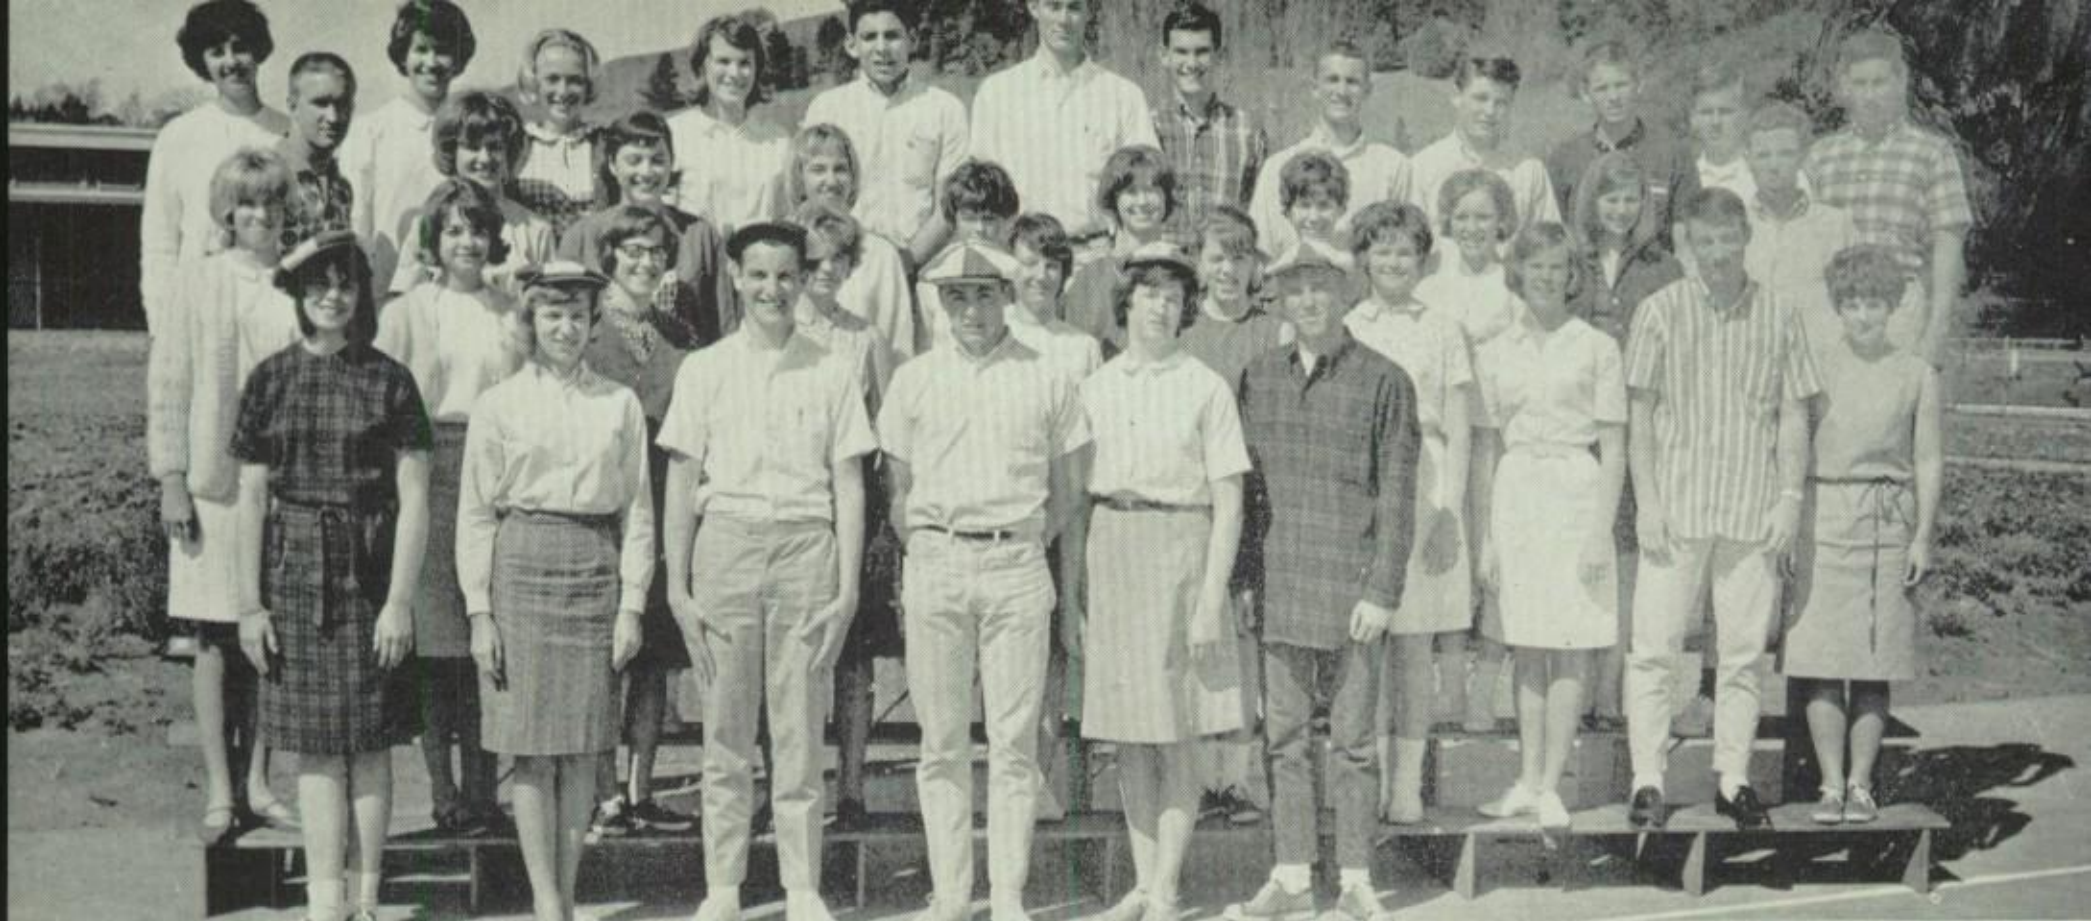

Fred Seely, Don Albright, and Greg Malley were three of the outstanding players who won the Foothill Basketball Championship.

Spring season meant a new membership in the Rally committee. The members were swamped with responsibilities. Unique posters advertising sports events had to be made each week. Baseball games, swimming and track meets were well attended by Rally members. Mr. Whyte patiently advised the group throughout the year, supervising all of Rally's activities.

Girls' and Boys' State

Each spring, two outstanding juniors are selected to attend Boys' and Girls' State. In 1963, Mike Hallock and Barbara Dodge spent a week at the two conferences, sponsored by the American Legion and held at the University of California at Davis. The delegates to the symposiums were organized into cities, counties, and political parties. Platforms were drawn up, campaigns organized and carried out, and elections held for offices on the local and state level. The students also attended lectures by experts in the field of political science, and came home with a thorough knowledge of the intricacies of state government.

Salimos para Monterey a las ocho de la mañana el diez y siete de abril. En Monterey visitamos la capilla. Después fuimos a visitar la misión de Carmel adonde vimos algo de la influencia española. Mas tarde algunos fueron al pueblo a ver lo que había en las tiendas. Otros fueron a la playa a nadar y a gozar del sol. Después, todos volvimos a reunirnos en el omnibus para dirigirnos a la misión de San Juan Bautista. De la misión fuimos al restaurante, La Casa María, donde comimos aire libre y disfrutamos de una agradable vista. Nuestros profesores, la señorita Sifuentes, el señor Hernandez, y el señor Dessler, como nosotros, creimos que el viaje tuvo gran éxito.

Unbeatable in pre-league play, the Acalanes tennis team, under Coach Smith, went on to complete a winning season. Among the early season matches won by the Dons was a 7-0 sweep against Vallejo. The Dons also defeated San Rafael and Amador in practice matches.

Two freshmen, Rick Goggin and Jeff Borowiak, numbers one and two, led the way for the tennis team by winning almost all of their matches. Jim Ingham, Mike Seaman, Jim McLennan, and Bruce Neighbor played well to give the team needed quality. Graduating only three players, the tennis team should be even stronger in 1965.

The Acalanes track team, lacking any real superstars, relied on depth to be a successful dual meet team. Mr. Eaton, coach of the team, watched his boys finish a fine season, coming in second to Piedmont.

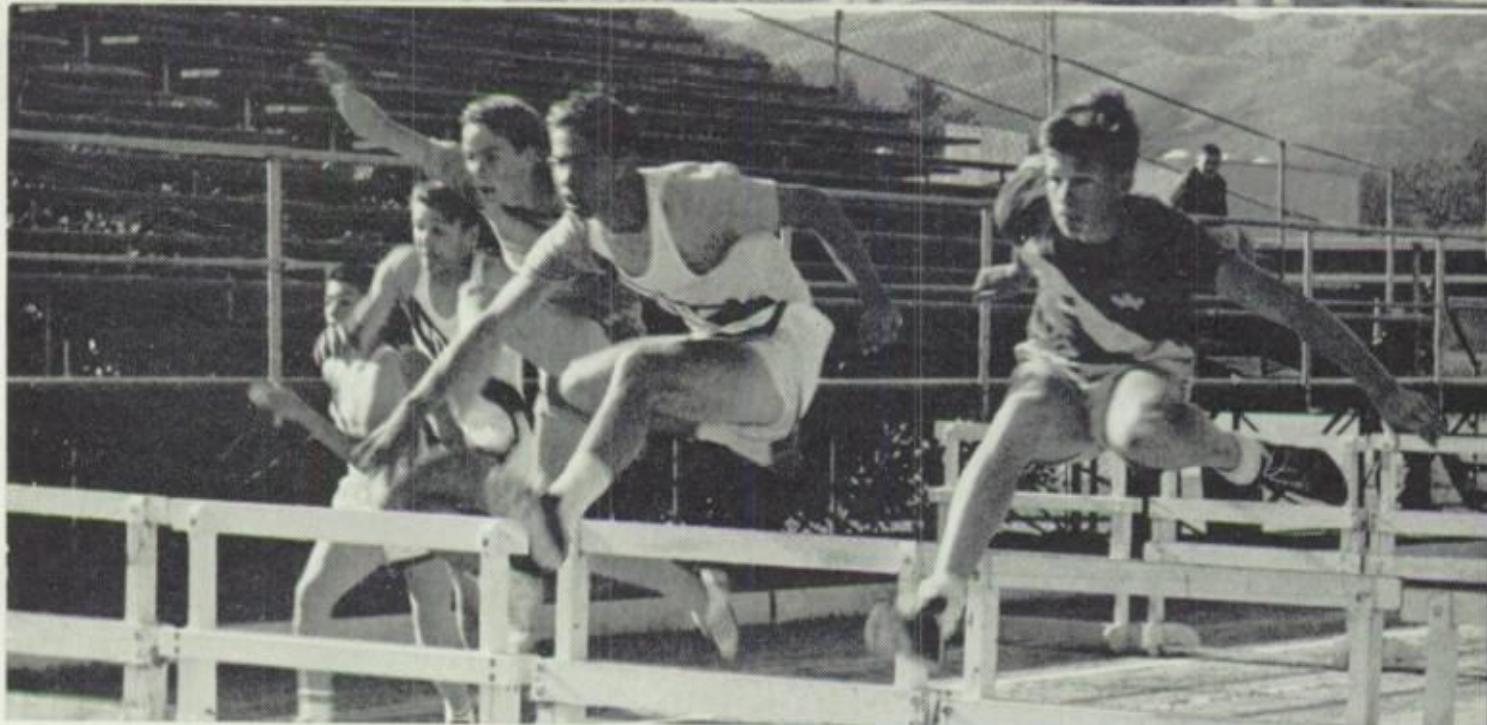

One highlight of the season was a 63-59 edging of Miramonte. The meet was decided by the final event of the day, the 880-yard relay. The Dons scored a record total of 100½ points while smothering Alhambra in another dual meet.

Seniors comprised a major portion of this year's squad. Consistent winners in the high and low hurdles, respectively, were Grove Hummert and Randy Angella. Barry Breckling not only ran the hurdles but also broke the school record for the high jump. The Dons were strong in the dashes and middle-distance events with Mike Hallock, Phil Smith, and Mark Silliphant placing high in those events. The Don's cleanup event, the 880-yard relay, composed of Phil Smith, Mike Hallock, John Nolan, and Grove Hummert usually wound up the meets with a win, for it was one of the best in the county.

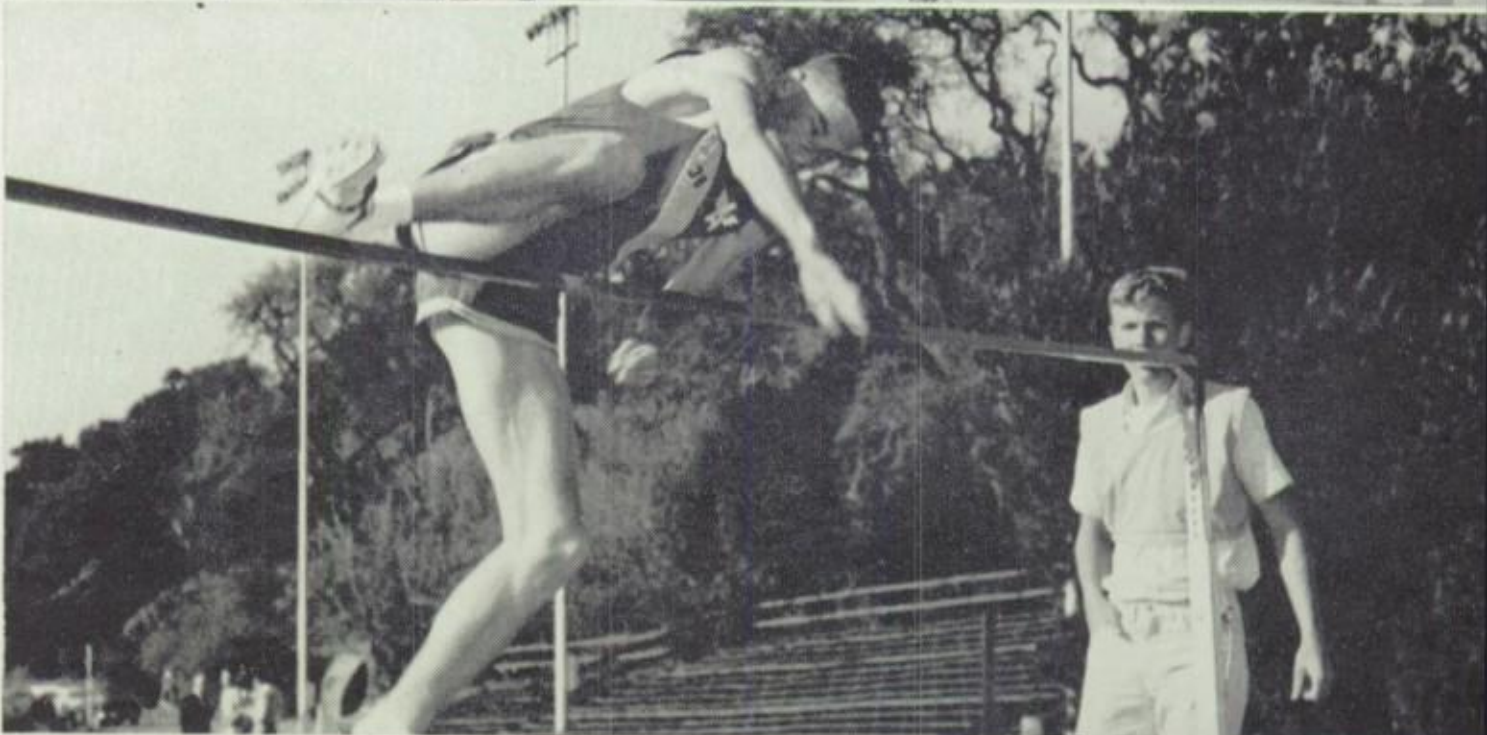

Grove Hummert and Barry Breckling ran first and second in the high hurdles.

Rich Pinger was out in front in the "B" high hurdles.

Barry Breckling set a new school record in the high jump.

This year one of the strongest Spring sports was swimming. Having tied for the F.A.L. championship last year, the varsity again appeared to be in the thick of the title race. The varsity led the League after having won its first four meets. Toughest competition for the Dons came from last years co-champions Las Lomas and Miramonte. "B" Swimming

This year the Acalanes "B" swimming team, coached by Mr. Dobbins, began the season with a very good chance of winning the championship. Their first place in the league relays gave them an admirable starting record. Many swimmers returning from last year's team, which placed second in the league, gave the "B's" an extra boost. Two outstanding boys from this group were Mark Cheney, a freestyler, and Doug Johnston, an individual medlyist. Even at the beginning of the season Coach Dobbins optimistically planned on gaining the top spot in the league.

Success in athletics lies in the coaching. Acalanes is fortunate in having coaches who are not only interested in winning, but who are also interested in teaching the principles of good sportsmanship.

Coaching, however, is more than a job for one man. Although a head coach has primary responsibilities for the team, assistant coaches are a necessary component of any team's success. This year's outstanding record would not have been possible without the efforts of assistant coaches Mr. Sterni, Mr. Thurling, and Mr. Warren.

GAA

Under the supervision of Miss Howell, G.A.A. offered girls a diversity of sport activities. In the fall, girls enjoyed the after-school basketball games. Indoor sports such as tumbling, prevailed in the winter. New equipment and an increased number of tennis courts enabled girls to participate in archery and tennis in the spring.

Block "A"

Athletes at Acalanes this year found the Block "A" Society a vigorous, hard-working club. Club advisors, Mr. Warren and Mr. Cockerton worked continuously to make the club a more exclusive organization and to give the club members more recognition in everyday school life. A new jacket was adopted by the Block "A" Society to eventually take the place of the letter sweater. Members felt that if jackets were used instead of sweaters, they could be used after the letter winners left Acalanes.

Early in the school year, the club went on its annual field trip. Each year the club travels to a different college to investigate the athletic facilities and the academic qualifications of the near-by schools. This year the club spent a day at Stanford University in Palo Alto.

Ending the year, the letter winners and their fathers attended an Awards Banquet at which outstanding athletes in all sports were honored.

All School Play

The second annual All School Play was presented on the night of April 17. Casts for the two one-act plays, The Ugly Duckling and The Boor, acted with the professional quality which is fast making this play a school tradition. Mr. Meinke, director, was assisted by Jan Bradley and Lynne Wiggins.

Linda Sedam, Leslie Hillyer, Nancy Hopper, and Sherry Rossi posed in their beautifully made floor-length ball gowns.

Mother-Daughter Tea

Mrs. Frazier poured tea for Nancy Silla, Carol Bates, and Alice Hink, who were wearing the dresses they modeled for the Girls' League fashion show.

Nancy Hicks modeled the smoky beige suit that won her a first place at the district level and sixth place in the state Woolgrowers Association competition, "Make It Yourself With Wool."

Jeanne Olsen's cranberry coat and white dress earned her a first place in district competition and a fourth place in the state Woolgrowers contest.

Julie Tucker and Sue Denny modeled their versatile sports clothes.

The summer outfits that Yvonne Mecchi, Linda Bartak, and Diana Hamaker wore in the Mother-Daughter Fashion Show were useful as well as attractive.

The Modern Dance Group provided the live entertainment for the dance.

Mardi Gras

A Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad Mardi Gras was held in the old gym on April 10. The crowd ate popcorn and cotton candy, played games for great prizes and danced to a live band.

In the Blueprint Booth, Jerry Bader supplied many with cotton candy.

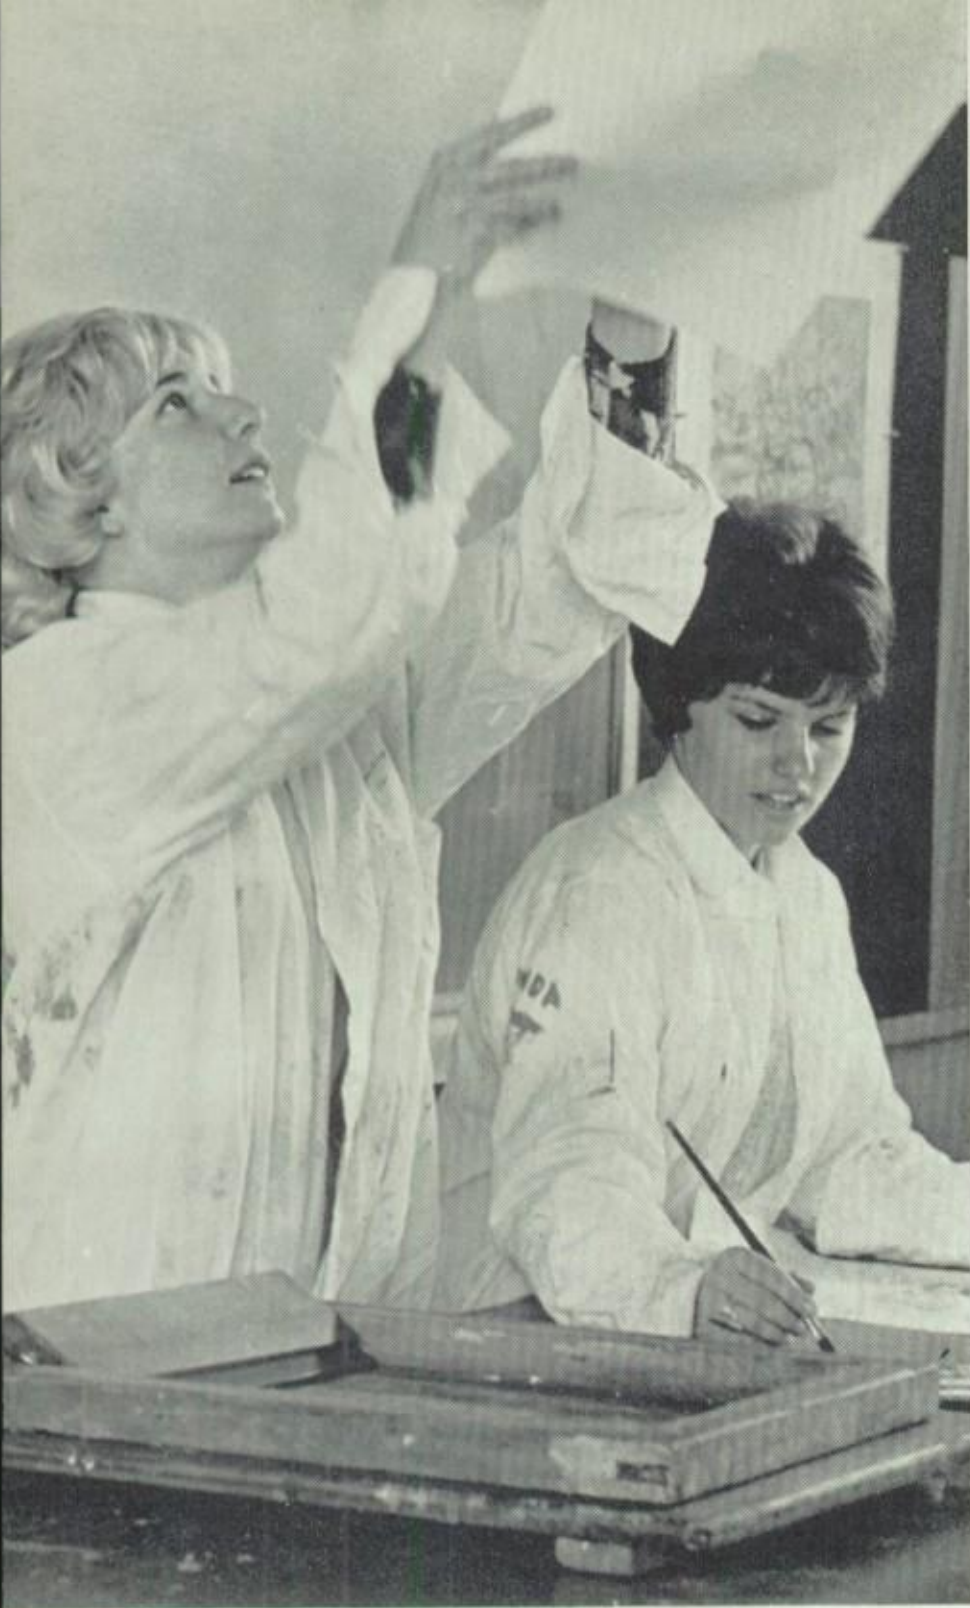

Wayne Wilkenson suffered the tortures of volunteering for the Sophomore Class Jello-Throw.

Dale Speyer watched to see if Joyce would win a ticket.

SENIOR BALL

Months before the Senior Ball preparations were made for its success. Sheila West and Lori Berger worked diligently on the posters announcing that the Senior Ball would be held on the night of May 23.

The committee heads and Senior Class Social Secretary Kathy Maraglia coordinate ideas. Margie Morris was in charge of the coat room. Janet Hicks headed the bids committee, Cindy Hustead acted as decoration chairman, and Megan Knox handled the publicity.

Nancy Hopper, Carol McMahan, and Sue Stiles spent much time on the bids for the dance.

Sherry Rossi, Linda Sedam, Cathy Steinback, and Marie Lund were among the many Senior girls who made their ball gowns.

Farewell

It is difficult to say good-bye to a teacher who, after nineteen years, is leaving Aca-lanes. It is hard to say farewell to one who has spent so much of her time with us. We will long remember her for her difficult grading system, her sarcastic wit, and all she has taught us. It is not enough to say good-bye. And so, Miss Ochoa, we can only say THANK YOU.

In Memoriam

JOHN R. SIMON

June 17, 1948 - December 1, 1963

a pause . . .
we turn and take a backward glance at our year past.

we behold . . .
a profusion of memories.
the record has been written.
we are proud and we are glad that our fortunes let us walk
this way
in fall in winter and in spring.
